

Washington DECA 2022 State Career Development Conference Health and Safety Policy

Updated February 21, 2022

MASK MANDATE

In accordance with current Washington state and King County mask mandates, all conference attendees will also be required to wear a mask at all times indoors, except while actively eating or drinking.

HEALTH & SAFETY UPDATES

Washington DECA and affiliated conference venues and Hotels continue to follow all state and local public health and government requirements for conferences and indoor/outdoor activities to ensure the safety and well-being of all conference attendees.

Tukwila, Wash. – Beginning March 1, vaccine verification and proof of a negative Covid-19 test will no longer be required for attendance at large events.

Attendees and volunteers at SCDC will not be required to provide proof of vaccination or a negative Covid-19 test. However, all schools attending SCDC should follow school district guidelines regarding vaccine and testing requirements. All other health and safety protocols will remain in place for SCDC including:

- Everyone is required to wear a mask while indoors, covering their mouth and nose unless actively eating or drinking
- Cover coughs and sneezes
- Wash hands and use sanitizer frequently
- No handshakes or other contact allowed
- No re-use of role plays and pencils
- No passing material to judges

- Quarantine rooms are assigned at each venue
- If a student becomes ill, unless emergency medical attention is required, they will be placed in quarantine and a parent will be contacted to pick them up
- Adhere to elevator capacities
- Maintain social distance

In accordance with the current Washington state and King County mask mandate, all conference attendees will also be required to wear a mask at all times indoors, except while actively eating or drinking. Please be mindful that the surrounding Bellevue restaurants, shopping areas, and public places are following the same King Country mask mandate.

For more information or questions, please contact Lori Hairston at lori@wadeca.org.